Sans compromis

Etre photographié sans aucun artifice n'est pas aisé. Dominique Derisbourg est sans compromis. Lorsqu'on entre dans son studio, situé sur les hauteurs de Vevey, impossible de tricher. J'ai personnellement dû jouer le jeu en mettant mon visage «à nu», concentrer sur l'objectif un regard naturel, si habituellement paré de noir, à sourire avec la pâleur de mes lèvres habituellement surlignées d'un crayon brun café. Un bel exercice d'humilité, un rappel des choses essentielles et une excellente thérapie pour le narcissisme...

Sur ces pages, nous avons sélectionné une douzaine de photos, représentant des leaders économiques de la région qui ont osé l'exercice.

Aujourd'hui, Dominique Derisbourg s'apprête à publier le livre qui compile ses œuvres photographiques. La moitié des ventes des images et des livres, le photographe veveysan la consacrera à Fond'action, une association qui lutte contre le cancer. La fondation, présidée par le professeur Serge Leyvraz, privilégie les traitements innovants et moins difficiles à supporter pour les patients. ■ cœur n'est pas», dans lequel il a voulu photographier chacun sans aucun maquillage ni artifice, ainsi que l'empreinte de leur pied nu, «symbole de la trace que chacun laisse sur cette terre». Le message: nous sommes tous égaux devant une maladie telle que le
